INTRODUCTION

FS-FlightControl is a touch optimized instructor station for all versions of Lockheed Martin Prepar3D®, Microsoft Flight Simulator X including Steam Edition, X-Plane version 10.52 or higher as well as Dovetail Flight Sim World.

It is used by flight schools and flight simulation centers, but also provided at a greatly reduced price to the flight enthusiast community.

In case you should have any questions about FS-FlightControl, a new idea or you need a specific feature, please do not hesitate to contact us.

FS-FlightControl is very actively developed as you can see in our extensive changelog and therefore we really look forward to any comments or new ideas to make our product even better!

Help Icons

Beside the question mark in the title bar you will find such little help icons all around in the program.

This allows you to access context-related manual topics directly.
